

SENORA HUERTA GOES TO HAVANA

Widow of General to Make Home in Cuba Until She Returns to Mexico.

Senora Huerta, widow of Gen. Victoriano Huerta, has gone to Cuba to make her home until peace is permanently restored in Mexico and she can return to her home in Mexico City with the body of her husband.

Accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Elena Huerta, and her small daughter, Senora Huerta left Saturday for New Orleans, where she will sail for Havana on the next United Fruit company boat.

The remainder of the Huerta family, including the sons, Victor and Jorge, the son-in-law, Maj. Fuentes, and the other relatives have taken homes in the city and the big house on West Boulevard, where Gen. Huerta died, is now vacated by the old general's family.

Gen. Huerta's body is in the receiving vault at the Conde de San Mateo cemetery, having been placed there on January 12, the day following the old general's death here.

Maj. Fuentes is the youngest son-in-law in the Huerta family, having been given that rank before he was 12 years of age.

CARRANZAS PLANS MASONRY

Says He Has No Intention of Interfering With Affairs in Mexico.

Gen. Marcelino Carranza denied Wednesday that he or any of his friends were contemplating any interference with the constitutional government in Mexico and that the report to the effect that he had crossed with a band of men at Fort Hancock, Texas, with a view to joining a band of "Colorado" in the Buena Vista territory, is without foundation. Gen. Carranza was seen in the office of the alcalde during the morning Wednesday and was much incensed at having his name associated with a reactionary movement.

When questioned as to insurrectionary troubles along the border in the Buena Vista territory, Gen. Carranza, of the Juarez garrison, stated that eight days ago he had investigated a rumor that had come from El Paso that Gen. Salazar and Carranza were fomenting a new revolutionary movement, and that he had found nothing in the story.

"We have a strong and efficient garrison at Juarez under the command of Col. Jose Rojas, and I am sure that any attempt at an expedition into Mexico from across the border would be frustrated," said Gen. Carranza.

OBREGON IS BACK IN SONORA STATE

Goes to Hermosillo to Marry; Chazaro Ready to Surrender, It is Said.

Gen. Alvaro Obregon left Mazatlan Wednesday for Hermosillo, to be married, according to a dispatch received Wednesday morning at the Mexican consulate. The report came from Mazatlan, where the movements of Gen. Obregon are watched with considerable interest. It was stated that on the eve of his departure, Gen. Carranza presented the bridegroom with a handsome gold watch as an appreciation of Obregon's loyalty and patriotism to the constitutional cause.

With Obregon on his northern trip are Gen. Diez and Caballero. The same dispatch conveys the intelligence that the wireless stations of the republic are now all being operated by the constitutionalists.

Francisco Lagus Chazaro, the last conventionalist president, has offered to surrender unconditionally and overtures are now being completed for the taking over of the arms and ammunition of that commander, it is said.

In Morelos, the Zapatista general, Nemesio, is reported to have fled to the Carrancistas with 250 men.

CALLES ORDERS 2000 MEN TO THE CHIHUAHUA LINE

Douglas, Ariz., Feb. 23.—Gen. P. Elias Calles, military governor of Sonora, has ordered 2000 troops to the Sonora-Chihuahua state line to prevent Francisco Villa from fleeing into Sonora, according to an announcement made here today by Ives G. Leveque, consul of the de facto Mexican government.

Notice.
Joint meeting for all engineers and firemen will be held at Elks club, 7:30 p. m. tonight.—Adv.

U. S. CONSUL RETURNS TO CHIHUAHUA, BUT OTHERS ADVISED TO STAY OUT.

Marion Letcher, United States consul at Chihuahua, has returned to his post at the Mexican state capital. Some weeks ago he endeavored to return, after receiving instructions from the state department, but was recalled by wire after he had gone to the train in Juarez. He has remained here awaiting new orders. Mr. Letcher closed the consulate and came to El Paso last fall at the direction of the department. In compliance with the latest order, Mr. Letcher has returned on the first train available.

The state department especially desires that all persons having interests in Mexico be informed that the return of the consul at this time and the reopening of the consulate is not to be construed as giving the sanction of the United States government to any general return of Americans to their business affairs and homes in Mexico. On the contrary, the state department takes this occasion to reiterate its warning to Americans to stay out of Mexico, including the northern states, until conditions are more settled than they are now.

Mr. Letcher's family remains in El Paso for the present.

MANY RUMORS OF ARGUMENTS

Said to Be Captive, Wounded and at Large; Villa's Force Reported Larger.

Gen. Benjamin Arguendo, said to be a prisoner in a hospital at Durango city, according to press dispatches earlier in the week, is now said by Mexicans coming to the border to be in Torreon, a prisoner of the Carranza garrison. A second report brought to the border said to have come direct from an official in Torreon, is that Arguendo is not in Torreon at all, but he is a band of men and is making raids in the Laguna district.

"Not only is Arguendo at large," says the informant, "but instead of being a captive in Torreon, he captured Torreon and held it for a number of days until he seized all the foodstuffs he wanted."

Villistas Tear Up Tracks.
It was also stated that the reason several freight trains came up from southern Chihuahua on Monday was because the railroad tracks below Jimenez have been virtually torn up by Villistas and no trains could travel in that direction. Two of the trains, which were scheduled to go to Torreon, were instead sent to the Texas border with fire.

Villa's Force Increasing.
The rumor is also current in Chihuahua that Villa, instead of being hard pressed by Carranza soldiers, is increasing his numbers and that he is likely to take Chihuahua city within the next 30 days. It is not thought, so the rumor goes, that Villa will hold Chihuahua, if he should take it, and that his single purpose would be to demonstrate his strength and to replenish his supply of foodstuffs.

SHARP SKIRMISH FOUGHT WITH REBELS NEAR JIMINEZ

Torreon, Mex., Feb. 23.—A sharp skirmish between government troops and rebels near Jimenez is reported from that town. The rebels are believed to be those which recently visited Jural Grande, west of Chihuahua a few days ago.

Reports from the Tlahualilo district Tuesday indicated that the rebels under Gen. Carranza were being driven north after fighting desperately to make a stand, first at Sierra Del Gallo and then at Mesa San Juan in the extreme northern corner of the state, on the edge of a desert.

A messenger from Gen. Matias Ramos, leading Carranza troops, reported that the rebel Gen. Ortega, who was badly wounded in the first battle at Tlahualilo is dead. Ramos urgently requested more ammunition.

The Mexican Central railway as far north as Escalen has been repaired. Advances from Durango City state all is quiet there.

GAVIRA DENIES GARRISON AT GUERRERO HAS SURRENDERED

The tension at the Carranza garrison in Guerrero, in the Sierra Madre district, is not as tense as originally reported, declared Gen. Gabriel Gavira, Wednesday. "The garrison there has not been forced to surrender and the only trouble has been that the wires into Guerrero were cut by Villistas and it took several days to restore communication," said Gen. Gavira.

Gen. Bertani is said to be moving toward Mazatlan with reinforcements for the Carranza army, hunting Villa and his band; and one of the events of this movement was the recent discovery of an eight centimeter gun found at the bottom of a ravine.

Gen. Gavira stated that he had had word to the effect that there had been additional trouble at Cuernavaca, but was unable to state what the trouble had been. "There are no Americans at Cuernavaca," he said, "and I judge the trouble has been of a marauding character," he said.

TONICHI RESIDENTS ROUT YAQUIS AFTER BATTLE

Douglas, Ariz., Feb. 23.—A pack train en route to a mine near Tonicchi, Sonora, 250 miles from the international border, was attacked two weeks ago by a band of 20 Yaqui Indians and three men guarding the train were killed before the Indians were driven off, according to persons arriving here today from Tonicchi.

Residents of Tonicchi and San Antonio, a nearby mining camp, later drove the Indians from the district after a day's fighting. One Indian and five townspeople were killed.

Advices received here from towns in Sonora say that despite the activity of a large Carranza army, Yaqui bands are making many raids in the southern Sahuaripa district.

NO MORE FREE COURSES FOR MEXICAN UNIVERSITIES

No longer will Mexico foster the development of its professional life in the manner adopted by president Diaz. It was the policy of the Diaz regime to extend to all young men desiring to enter the profession of law, medicine or civil engineering the tutelage without personal expense. Wednesday word came to the Mexican consulate that hereafter all young men and women entering colleges and universities fostered by the government would have to pay $5 a month. The decree stipulating a set monthly sum was invoked by the first chief during the past week after numerous conferences with educators upon the subject.

100 WOMEN TO GET THE BELLETT

Herald to Have Cooking School and Exposition for Women of El Paso.

Whenever three or four women get together and discuss fancy work or a new embroidery stitch, it means the beginning of the end of that stitch. There is no half way about it. It's just plain beginning of plain and when over a bunch of 100 women get together and say, "Isn't it lovely," then the thing that is being admired is worth all that was put into it and 100 percent besides. But when 1000 women come together and talk over how to make sponge cake and how to trim a baby's dress in the summer time, and how to keep milk from souring and how to get hold of the refrigerator, then the thing that is being admired is worth all that was put into it and 100 percent besides. But when 1000 women come together and talk over how to make sponge cake and how to trim a baby's dress in the summer time, and how to keep milk from souring and how to get hold of the refrigerator, then the thing that is being admired is worth all that was put into it and 100 percent besides.

Cooking School and Exposition.
The Herald has a cooking school and an exposition of home industries for next week. It will bring together a thousand El Paso women who want to get the latest idea in cooking and the last word in what's good for the table when the seasons are on the change. The Herald is so glad that they should be under a thousand. It is only concerned about making the thousand serving, thoughtful, ambitious women comfortable.

How is this to be done? Simple—that's the word for it. Just as simple as holding a pot of soup. We are going to do it because we know how. Women like comfortable chairs. So there will be a thousand perfect comfortable chairs. Women like new things—therefore the newest in the cook books will be told to them, just what the last cry from the kitchen is. Women like to be in swanky places and they like things to go with a dash. So the Herald found the new Rockwood Furniture company's building at 507-209 and 211 North Stanton street, with its striking and interesting floor, its large first floor, and then a second floor, a third floor, a fourth floor. She is going to put over things that are things: tarts that are tarts, rolls that make the sea sigh, and crullers that are crullers. There are holes in them: roasts that make you think of the kind mother had.

What she don't know about eating ten in the dictionary, nor is she a book. She can say recipes off backward and can tell 18 different ways to make cheese sandwiches and 40 different ways for making turkey dressing. She takes a stove and looks at it and it's never the same stove again. She's a piano tuner—just changes the whole tone of that instrument's career.

She is going to be the star attraction for food and women each day and during the seven days that she starts El Paso with her culinary knowledge, she is going to reach a thousand women every day and then some.

Many Things to Happen.
The Herald is proud of all that's going to happen. There will be music by the Van Surdam orchestra, and there are going to be living models that know all the latest walks and carry 1000 sticks, and those hats with flower gardens on top, the best models that ever walked out of an Eveready and a Pond's window, and we are going to don't demagogue in dressing so as to keep father guessing, isn't on the market.

Nor is the Herald going to be selfish about it either. It is going to be generous—big and broad, like H. B. Durkee says. The hymen industry workers should be going to see to everybody in El Paso that who has something useful and beautiful; things that will make home home and a museum to bring it along and put it on display, without a cent's charge. The Herald will give you the space and say: "Well, if that skirt or that machine or that pie is going to advance civilization, we will help it along."

All the merchants and all the cooks and all the models and all the dress-makers and everybody are invited. Come with the exhibit; use a wheelbarrow if you haven't an auto. But bring it any way.

LEGGETT MURDER CASE TO THE JURY

Arguments in Fort Hancock Killing; Leggett Says He Shot in Self Defence.

Arguments to the jury in the case of William Leggett, charged with the murder of Gregorio Rivera near Fort Hancock on June 18, 1915, began in the 27th district court this afternoon. Wednesday morning the state recalled Jesus Rivera, who denied that he had followed Leggett with a gun several days before the killing. Two witnesses were also put on to testify to the good reputation of Rivera.

Plea of Self Defence.
Self defence was the plea of William Leggett when he went on the stand Tuesday afternoon in his own defence. The witness stated that when he went to work for J. T. Mellor he had been warned by B. Bean that there was likely to be trouble with the Mexicans later, he stated, Charlie Beall told him that sheriff Edwards had told him that he (Leggett) was likely to be killed and he had better carry a gun.

The witness told of an occurrence a short time before the killing when he and a Mexican named Pedro Flores had been followed by Jesus Rivera.

Armed With Hoe.
"On the day of the killing I kept myself and started for home, the witness continued. 'I saw Gregorio Rivera planting, though he was planting on Mellor's land and went over and asked him not to plant there. He replied something in Spanish, which I could not understand. I kept trying to tell him and finally told him to leave. Then he called me a — and started towards me with a hoe. I then shot him.'

Did Not Intend Murder.
On cross examination he stated that he did not know how many times he shot. He declared that he had no intention of killing Rivera when he rode up. 'If I had wanted to murder him I could have done it before, when he was alone.' 'Why didn't you get away when he started at you with the hoe,' asked attorney C. L. Vowell for the prosecution.

"A man has a right to defend himself," replied the witness.

Charles Beall, Tom Beall, W. M. Pence and Leonard Pence all testified to the good reputation of Leggett. B. Bean told of the warning given by sheriff Edwards.

YES—IT IS POSSIBLE TO STOP RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is a tormenting and stubborn malady. In some cases it yields to treatment which is without avail in other cases.

The darting pains, lame muscles or stiffened joints only disappear by gradually expelling the uric acid, and so many thousands have been relieved by the blood-enriching oil-food in Scott's Emulsion that you should give it a faithful trial. Scott's Emulsion acts as a powerful blood-purifier by increasing the red corpuscles and it strengthens the organs to carry off the acids which cause the trouble.

Try Scott's Emulsion. It cannot harm. It has helped thousands and may be exactly what you need. No Alcohol.
